

Assumptions made:

- Event registry page can be shown only on `get all events` api success
- In case of failure on `get registered events` api, UI will be shown with zero registered events.
- Available event list can be fetched in a single api request

Room for improvement:

- Good to show a message on why an event can't be selected
- Infinite scrolling or pagination can be added for displaying a huge set of available events

